

Cladding

Price guide 2025

Cladding

Canadian Cedar	3
Canadian Larch	4
North Am. Douglas Fir	5
Redwood Pine	6
African Iroko	7
European Oak	8
African Sapele	9
British Larch	10
Sweet Chestnut	11
Charred European Larch	12
Thermally modified	12
Cladding profiles	13
Why Timbersource?	14

Canadian Cedar

from £11.72 per linear metre

Sourced from sustainable forests, our Canadian Western Red Cedar is a naturally durable, stable and versatile softwood with a beautiful reddish-brown colour and a distinctive aroma.

Name: Canadian Western Red Cedar

Colour: Pink, brown and orange hues

Grain: Even, fine grain

Knot content: Few/infrequent

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Easy to work with and install

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Fencing, Saunas

To find out more about Canadian Cedar and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Canadian Larch

from £8.59 per linear metre

Canadian Larch is a native hardwood species prized for its durability and strength. It's harvested from sustainable forests, offering a sustainable and environmentally friendly timber option.

Name: Canadian Larch

Colour: Reddish-brown hue

Grain: Straight grain

Knot content: Moderate

Durability: Durable

Workability: Easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Fencing, Structures

To find out more about Canadian Larch and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

North American Douglas Fir

from £10.19 per linear metre

North American Douglas Fir, a versatile softwood native to North America, is renowned for its strength, durability, and attractive appearance. It is an excellent choice for a variety of applications.

Name: North American Douglas Fir

Colour: Reddish-brown

Grain: Straight grain

Knot content: Few/infrequent

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Construction, Joinery

To find out more about North American Douglas Fir and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Redwood Pine

from £5.86 per linear metre

Sourced from sustainable forests, our Redwood Pine is a versatile and affordable softwood with a warm reddish-brown heartwood. It is an excellent choice for a variety of applications.

Name: European Redwood Pine

Colour: Reddish-brown

Grain: Straight grain

Knot content: Moderate/frequent

Durability: Durable

Workability: Easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Joinery, Furniture, Flooring

To find out more about Redwood Pine and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

West African Iroko

from £12.50 per linear metre

Sourced from sustainable forests, West African Iroko is known for its exceptional resistance to decay, weathering, and insect attack. It's an excellent choice for interior and exterior applications.

Name: West African Iroko

Colour: From a golden-yellow to brown

Grain: Interlocked grain

Knot content: Little to none

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Moderately easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Joinery, Boatbuilding

To find out more about West African Iroko and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

European Oak

from £11.25 per linear metre

European Oak is a classic hardwood sourced from the forests of Europe. Whether used for traditional or contemporary designs, it adds a touch of elegance and sophistication to any project.

Name: European Oak

Colour: Golden-brown

Grain: Straight, coarse grain

Knot content: Moderate/frequent

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Relatively easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Furniture, Joinery, Flooring

To find out more about European Oak and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

West African Sapele

from £10.19 per linear metre

Sourced from sustainable forests, West African Sapele is a favourite among woodworkers. This versatile wood is an excellent choice for many applications and is ideal for painting due to its smooth grain texture.

Name: West African Sapele

Colour: Reddish-brown

Grain: Ribbon-like grain

Knot content: Little to none

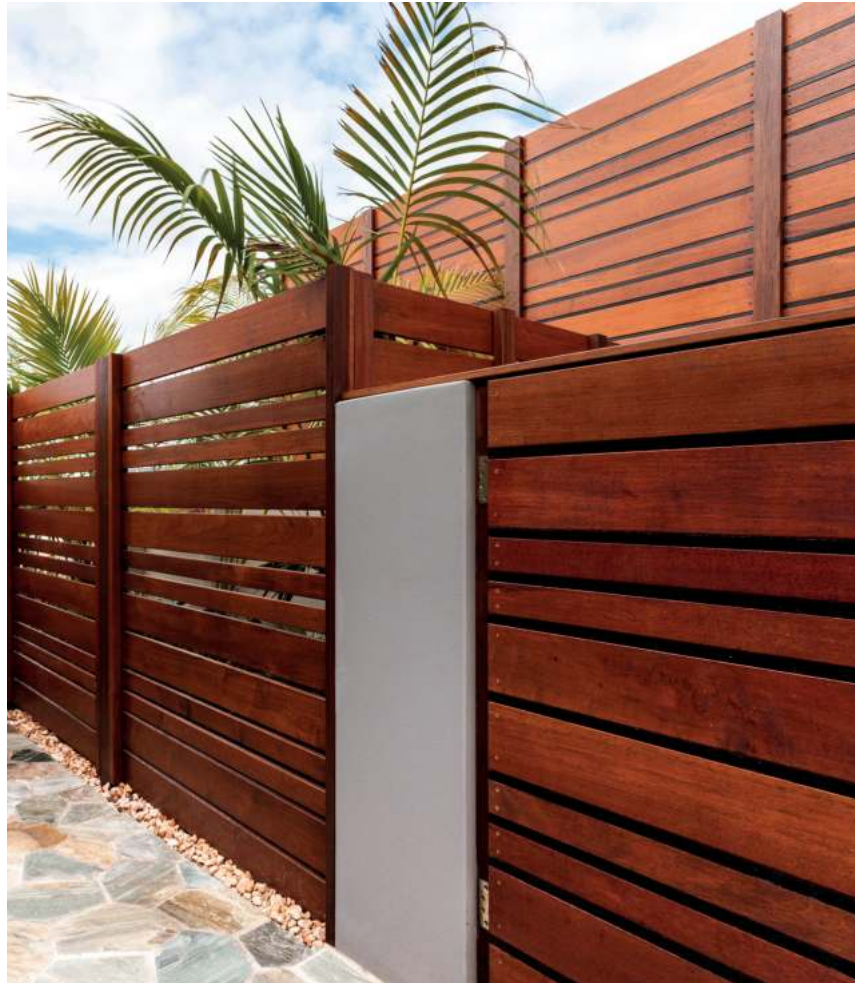

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Relatively easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Fencing, Joinery, Furniture

To find out more about West African Sapele and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

British Larch

from £8.17 per linear metre

British Larch is a versatile and durable timber, known for its resistance to rot and weather, making it ideal for outdoor projects. It boasts a distinctive grain pattern with few knots, giving it a charming and rustic appearance.

Name: British Larch

Colour: Pale pink and orange hues

Grain: Straight grain

Knot content: Moderate/frequent

Durability: Naturally durable

Workability: Easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Furniture, Fencing, Pergolas

To find out more about British Larch and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Sweet Chestnut

from £7.27 per linear metre

Sweet Chestnut is a hardwood native to southern Europe and western Asia. It has a long history of use, particularly in construction and furniture making, due to its durability and attractive appearance.

Name: Sweet Chestnut

Colour: Light brown to reddish-brown

Grain: Usually straight grain

Knot content: Moderate/frequent

Durability: Durable

Workability: Easy to work with

Uses: Cladding, Fencing, Furniture, Flooring

To find out more about Sweet Chestnut and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Charred European Larch is a wood cladding made by charring European larch wood to enhance its durability and appearance. The charring process is called Yakisugi and is an ancient Japanese technique.

Name: Charred European Larch

Colour: Charr15, Charr30, Charr60, Charr90

Grain: Straight or spiraled grain

Knot content: Moderate/frequent

Durability: Very durable

Workability: Soft, brittle after the charring process

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Fencing, Joinery

To find out more about Charred European Larch and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

Charred European Larch

from £9.14 per linear metre

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Abodo timber is Radiata Pine from New Zealand that is 'thermally modified' by using steam and high temperatures. The cooling and reconditioning process phases reduce the moisture content and increase both the durability and stability.

Name: Abodo (Radiata Pine)

Colour: Chocolate brown

Grain: Straight grain

Knot content: Some/infrequent

Durability: Exceptional durable

Workability: Easy to work with

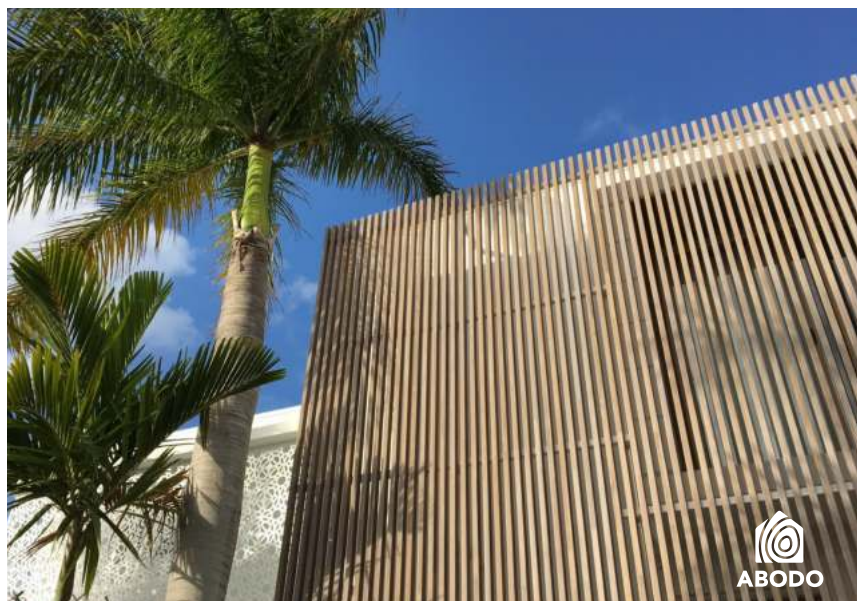

Uses: Cladding, Decking, Fencing, Joinery

To find out more about Abodo timber and the different cladding profiles we offer, please visit our website or give us a call and a member of our team will be happy to answer your questions.

+44 01373 469905
sales@timbersource.co.uk

Thermally modified

from £13.16 per linear metre

*All cladding prices are based on profiles with 18mm x 130mm (face width) and in linear metres

All prices are subject to stock availability. Prices as of 2025

Why Timbersource?

Customer service

Dedicated customer service to manage your account and support your projects

Technical support

Calculating from drawings and value engineering cutting lists for efficiency timber delivered to your door

Nationwide delivery

We can deliver anywhere in the UK

Samples available

With our timber samples, you can confidently choose the perfect timber for your project

Choose profile

TLAR

Tongue & Groove
with a V

great for cladding gates, doors and internal wall coverings

TLAT

Shadow gap
Tongue & Groove

great for vertical cladding

TLAS

Beaded Tongue
& Groove

great for internal wall decor or wardrobes

TLAE

Staggered Tongue
& Groove

great for external horizontal cladding

TLAN

Halflap Shadow gap

great for external
cladding

TLAM

Halflap with a V great for decking and doors

TLAV

Shiplap Tongue
& Groove

great for external horizontal cladding with a rounded rain run off

TLAQ

Tongue & Groove

great for a multitude of purposes like flooring, furniture and doors

TLAZ

45 Degree Halflap

great for horizontal cladding with rainscreen run off

TLAX

Featheredge

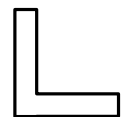

great for horizontal cladding

PAR

Planed all round

great for all projects

L Corner

Corner moulding great for capping off cladding ends on corner elevation and window reveals

Can't see what you are looking for?

Contact our team to find out what other profiles are available